Large old oak barrel fermentation with natural yeasts. Gentle maceration for a fresh, fruity style. No fining or filtration, minimal sulphur.

MATURATION:

Short maturation in large old oak barrel.

TASTING NOTES:

Deep purple colour. Spiced bramble, cassis, plum and blackcurrant aromas. Immense flavour and richness. Firm tannins, yet a velvety texture.

PAIRING SUGGESTION:

With intense fruits and firm tannin this bold wine is suited to bold, rich flavours; roast beef or sirloin steak, portobello mushrooms with blue cheese or bring out the fruitiness with a lamb and prune tagine.

SERVING TEMP:

15-18°C
